IRIZARRY, CH.J.

Honorable Dora Irizarry
225 Cadman plaza E,
Brooklyn, NY 11201

Dear Honor Irizarry:

This letter is a formal request to have my criminal history ^{EXPUNGE MR} My case number is 10-CR-120 (S-1). On August 10 of 2011, I, Mohamad Elreda, was charged with Trafficking in counterfeit clothing which is a Class C felony. I was sentenced to 1 year of house arrest and 5 years of probation. As of May 30th 2016, I have completed all my responsibilities such as 200 hours of community service and my probation period.

Since my previous and only charge, I had hopes of becoming an avid member of society by leading a hard-working life. However, it has been difficult creating a set career for myself because of my criminal history. I had applied to work as a New York taxi driver but was rejected because of my criminal background. I applied to numerous jobs but was turned down. I even applied as a salesman in a car dealership in California but was turned down because of my previous offense. With my current job as a furniture salesman declining, I feel as if my job opportunities are very minimal. Therefore, I kindly ask that my criminal record be sealed and continue being a responsible member of society and leading a good example for my siblings.

I have always been the main caregiver for my elderly parents and younger siblings. By sealing my criminal record, I can continue doing so after finding a more stable and set job. I have taken steps to try and correct my previous actions. I have maintained a clean record and have not worked in the clothing business since my offense. I have hopes of working in the public transportation business in New York and with your kind help I will be able to do so. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Mohamad Elreda
